Strathmore University
School of Tourism and Hospitality

Achieve excellence in your chosen profession
Hospitality and Hotel Management is a vibrant, challenging and exotic career. The hospitality industry encompasses a diversity of fields within the service industry. As the hospitality industry moves increasingly from a skill-based to a knowledge-based industry, higher learning has become increasingly critical to opening career doors and helping managers to be more fully attuned to the culture, services and competitive aspects of the sector.

CAREER
Graduates can find employment in hotels, special event management companies, resorts, restaurants, convention centres and transport companies such as airlines and cruise ships. This programme is ideal for people who are mobile, free-spirited and eager for new experiences and cultures. In such a broad-based industry, career opportunities are extensive.

WHY SCHOOL OF TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY?
- Globally benchmarked curriculum.
- Foreign language classes for a competitive edge.
- Local and international internship opportunities.

- Local and international field trips.
- One-on-one consultations with the lecturers.
- 90% employment rate upon graduation.

I heard of Strathmore’s excellent reputation as a leading institution in business studies. Therefore, in 2008 when the school introduced a programme that merged business and hospitality, I saw it as an opportunity to pursue my interest in Hospitality as well as gain business expertise. I got industry exposure through my internships, which helped me secure a job even before graduation. Strathmore also helped me to nurture my skills over and above classwork because the school has a focus in producing an all-round graduate to thrive in the industry.
